POLITICAL GOSSIP.

ALREADY PEOPLE ARE TALK-ING ABOUT CANDIDATES.

The Chronicle Gives the Gist of Some of the Gossip about Politics That is Heard These Days.

The CHRONICLE will try to keep its readers posted upon the political chat that finds its way in the State newspapers, and it will thank its friends to send any short items of political news that is of interest.

The Stanly Observer declares for Mr. Juo. W. Manney for solicitor of the 8th district. It says "Mr. M. is a good lawyer, a high toned gentleman, and a sound Democrat."

A leading ex State Senator, in a pri- with other interests. wate letter, says: "Capt. R. B. Peebles, of Northamption county, is the man to make chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee."

F. M. Simmons comes to the front again as a candidate for Congress in the second district of North Carolina. He is the right man for the place and will do honor to the district -Elizabeth City

A gentleman from the First district aays hat W. J. Griffin, Esq , of Elizabeth City, will be in the race for Solicitor, and that he has assurances of strong support. He telis us that the Alliance will favor Mr. Griffin. He also tells us swerves him from the clear line of that Gen. Roberts is a candidate for Congress and that his friends are working very hard for him.

This week's Maxton Union says editorially: The present indications are that the Congressional race in the "shoestring" district will be between Capt. Alexander, of Meeklenburg, and Hou. Alfred Rowland, our present represen-tative, with the odds decidedly in favor of Col. Rowland. Capt. Alexander's strong card will be the Farmers' Alliance, but down this way it is generally conceded that Col. Rowland is just as good an Alliance man as can be sent to Congress from this district.

It is said that Mr. E. A. Moye, Superior Court Clerk of Pitt county will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district. How many? Lets see: There's the in-cumbent Hon. T. G. Skinner, of Per-quimans; and Gen. W. P. Roberts, of Hates; and Louis C. Latham, of Pitt. and Harry Skinner, of Pitt. and Mr. Branch, of Beaufort; and J. E. Moore, of Martin; and Col. Carter, of Hyde; and Capt. Warren, of Beaufort; and W. B Shaw, of Currituck. Choose ye. -Elizabeth City Economist.

The Statesville Landmark, the Ashebaro Courier, the Troy Vidette, and the Salisbury Hereld, are out for the nomipation of B. F. Long, Esq., the present collector of the eighth district. Refering to this matter, the Salisbury Her-

'Mr. Long has made a most excellent solicitor; no fault that we know of has THOMAS H. BRIGGS & SONS been found of his administration of the office, and under the circumstances it would seem hardly fair or just to him not to give him the nomination for a second term. The custom has become so well established in the State of doing Everything in the way of first class well established in the State of doing this that we hardly look for a departure in the case of Mr. Long, who will, we have again receive the nomination at the hands of the Democrats of this district. Our townsman, Mr. John W. Manney, is an able, capable lawyer, well qualified for the office of solicitor, and the Herald, under different conditions, would be delighted to work and vote for him for the position. But for the reasons stated above, and because we think Mr. Long entitled to the nomination.

Everything in the way of first class canned goods; Peaches, Pears, Apricots, Cherries, &c., &c. Canned Vegetables of every description; Shrimps, Salmon, Crabs, Lobsters, &c. Best goods, lowest prices. A good corn, standard No. 2 size, at 10c. per can is a cheap vegetable.

NEW ROE HERRINGS.

Thirty thousand new Roe Herrings, we think Mr. Long entitled to the nomination this year, we are sorry to see the candidacy of Mr. Mauney announced. We hope that Mr. Mauney will withdraw guaranteed.

Thirty thousand new Roe Herrings, Finest cish, packed expressly to order; at retail, and in half barrels, containing one hundred pounds of fish net. Weight guaranteed. from the contest, leaving the coming convention free to nominate Mr. Long by acclamation. Four years hence the Herald will champion the claims of Mr. Manney for solicitor with pleasure, and will insist that he is entitled to it. Now Triplett's "Monarch we think differently."

Postpone the Ctnventions,

The Farmers' Alliance of Stanly county have adopted the following resolu

WHEREAS, The farmers of Stanly county, N. C., are very much engaged in their crops and harvesting during the month of Therefore, Resolved 1st, That we the rarmers' Alliance of Stanly county, N. C., in session do hereby demand of the Executive Committees of the 6th Congressional District of North Carolina, of both political parties, to defer the time of assembling of the Congressional Conventions of said district to nominate candidates for Congress, as late as consistency will allow, after July 1st, thereby enabling the farmers of the district to be represented.

Mr. Aycock for Congress in the Third District.

[Goldsboro Argus.]

During the summer a convention will be called to nominate a democratic candidate for congressman in the third distriet to succeed Hon. C. W. McClammy, the present incumbent. The Argus, on behalf of his many friends throughout the district, places in nomination Charles B. Aycock, Esq.,

Mr. Aycock is not unknown to the people of this district, having made the State. among them in the last Presidential contest a most brilliant, able and effective

He is an able and fearless debater, experienced and well informed upon the political and economic questions of the Printers, Binders and day. His interesting and powerful discussion of the tariff made a profound impression upon all who heard him in the last campaign. It is safe to say that no other man in the district has ever made such able and convincing speeches upon that subject. A Democrat by inheritance and conviction, he has, since boyhood, thrown himself into the political contests by which he has been surrounded and done valiant service in the cause of pure Democracy. Wherever men were to be convinced and persuaded, his vigorous and trenchant speeches have been in demand, and he has contributed largely to the success of the party in this section of the State. Graduating with honor at the State University, receiving the orator's and essayist's medals, he studied law, and began practice in Goldsboro, where in the midst of an able bar, he has gained the reputation of an able and successful lawyer and brilliant advocate.

He has grown in experience and learning while his reputation has widened, until, we believe, he possesses in an eminent degree the qualifications for serving the people of the district more ably and more successfully than any man who has been mentioned for the nomination. And in saying this we intend no reflection upon the gentlemen of the district who are aspirants for the place. They are gentlemen of character and ability, but none of them is, we believe, so well qualified to secure the proper consideration of the measures which are now agitating the popular mind. Just at this juncture we need to put our ablest men to the front. In an agricultural section like ours, and with the farming interests in so deplorable a condition, we want to send men to Congress who can do most to remove the burdens which rest upon us and give to agriculture an equal chance

Mr. Aycock is the son of the late Benjamin Ayeock, who was one of our best citizens and an excellent farmer, was himself raised on the farm, all his relatives and connections, more numerous perhaps than those of any other man in this county, are farmers, and he himself is in full sympathy with the people in their efforts to raise the farmer to the enjoyment of the blessings to which he is entitled.

Modest, unassuming, able, vigilant and progressive, Charles B. Aycock would make a representative of whom the people would be prond.

An honest, courageous man, nothing

Gentlemen of the third district, The Argus most firmly believes you could not do better than to nominate our distinguished countyman.

Ever offered in this market.
